This contract states that the above bride will employ All For You Hair Salon as the sole provider of services for the purpose of a wedding event. As the service provider, All For You Salon and Day Spa promises to service the bride, her family and wedding party as booked 3 weeks in advance of the wedding date.

This contract also encompasses the trial for the brides hair and makeup, to ensure that the trial for both hair and makeup will be performed on the wedding day by the same person who performs them on the trial date.

There are makeup artists on staff that can be available with advanced notice, the day of the wedding. If an outside makeup artist is brought on premise a $50 service fee will be assessed to the bride and the makeup artist will have to pay a 20% commission per application. It will be the brides responsibility to inform the outside makeup artist of the service commission split.

There is a $100.00 deposit due the day the contract is signed. The $100 will be applied to the total due on the wedding day. The deposit is refundable if the contract is cancelled up to 90 days prior to the wedding date.

The prices are as follows:
